Biography

John Ellison is a Republican member of the Nevada Senate, representing Senate District 19 since 2024. He succeeded fellow Republican Peter Goicoechea in the seat, which covers a vast rural expanse of eastern Nevada including Elko, Eureka, and White Pine counties. Ellison's move to the upper chamber followed a twelve-year tenure in the lower house, marking a continuation of his legislative service in the state capital.

Prior to his election to the Senate, Ellison served in the Nevada Assembly from 2010 to 2022, representing District 33. Outside of politics, he has worked as an electrical contractor. Details regarding his formal education and military service are not publicly documented in the provided biographical records.

The statutory base salary for this office is $130[^1]. Most recent
