Biography

Paul Laxalt served as a United States Senator from Nevada from 1974 to 1987 as a member of the Republican Party. During his tenure in the Senate, he emerged as a prominent conservative voice and a close political ally of President Ronald Reagan, often described as the "First Friend" for his influential role in Reagan's presidential campaigns and administration liaison efforts. He chose not to seek reelection in 1986, retiring from the Senate after a single full term following his initial appointment and subsequent election to complete the vacancy.

Prior to his Senate career, Laxalt served as the 22nd Governor of Nevada from 1967 to 1971, where he focused on government reorganization and tax reform. He began his professional career as an attorney after earning a law degree from the Univers
