Biography

Assemblywoman Selena Torres (D-Las Vegas) currently represents Assembly District 3 and serves as the Chair of the Nevada Assembly Committee on Education. Her tenure and legislative voting record are the subject of intense scrutiny from critics who argue her policy approach relies on heavy state intervention and socialist-leaning economic frameworks that have worsened Nevada's public education system.

As Chair of the Education Committee, Torres has overseen the passage of significant education legislation, including SB 460 during the 2025 session. While proponents argue such bills promote literacy and expand public school options, critics contend her leadership has failed to reverse Nevada's chronically poor education outcomes and instead prioritized union-backed mandates over systemic acc
